NARRATIVE:

On April 27TH, 2017, at approximately 11:39 PM, multiple Burlington Police Officers responded to the area of Archibald Street / Intervale Avenue for a report of a male suspect discharging a firearm. The male suspect reportedly left the scene in a blue colored sedan after discharging the firearm.

Officers arrived on scene and learned from multiple witnesses that the suspect, later identified as Kyle J. Minckler, was arguing with his ex-girlfriend in the area. When a witness tried to intervene, Minckler displayed a firearm prior to driving away in his vehicle. Minckler drove a short distance down the road, stopped and proceeded to point the firearm in the air and discharged it.

On April 28TH, 2017, at approximately 3:02 AM, Burlington Police located Minckler's vehicle parked in the area of Hyde Street. Officers subsequently located Minckler at an apartment on Hyde Street and he was taken into custody without any issues. No one was injured in the incident.

POLICE DEPARTMENT
CITY OF BURLINGTON

§ 1042. Domestic assault

Any person who attempts to cause or wilfully or recklessly causes bodily injury to a family or household member, or wilfully causes a family or household member to fear imminent serious bodily injury shall be imprisoned not more than 18 months or fined not more than $5,000.00, or both. (Added 1993, No. 95, § 2; 2007, No. 174 (Adj. Sess.), § 5.)

§ 1025. Recklessly endangering another person

A person who recklessly engages in conduct which places or may place another person in danger of death or serious bodily injury shall be imprisoned for not more than one year or fined not more than $1,000.00 or both. Recklessness and danger shall be presumed where a person knowingly points a firearm at or in the direction of another, whether or not the actor believed the firearm to be loaded, and whether or not the firearm actually was loaded. (Amended 1971, No. 222 (Adj. Sess.), § 4, eff. April 5, 1972; 1999, No. 149 (Adj. Sess.), § 3.)
